

June 30th, 2024

After much reflection, I am writing to formally announce my retirement from practice as a Psychologist effective September 30th, 2024.

Over the past 3 decades I have had the privilege of working with wonderful and remarkable colleagues and clients. The journey has been both professionally rewarding and personally fulfilling. Along the way I have learned a great deal about the complexities of the human spirit and mind and ways to aid individuals and families on their paths to well-being. The support and collaboration I have experienced has been instrumental in my learning and development as a Psychologist. While I look forward to embracing the next stage in my life, I will certainly reflect on (and miss) the time spent in practice.

To ensure a smooth transition, I am committed to assisting in any way I can during my remaining time in practice. More specifically, I will remain available for in-office meetings until August 30th. Throughout the month of September, I will be available for phone or on-line (video) teletherapy, parent consultation and supervision. Please contact me prior to the end of August to discuss any anticipated form of support or transition in services.

Thank you for the opportunities and experiences that have enriched my career.

Sincerely,

Ken Gardner, M.Sc., R Psych (CPT-S)
